

Optimize Your Company's Contract Skills with Our Training Membership

How to Contract membership is designed to help your legal and business teams excel.

As members, your in-house attorneys and professionals receive contract insights, resources, and readymade tools they need to become more effective drafters and negotiators. How to Contract membership lightens your load by making everyone around you better. Your company will see these benefits:

Turn less experienced employees into competent contract professionals

Enjoy scalable development without time-consuming, hands-on training

Spend less time reviewing contracts because your team gets them in better shape before they hit your desk

Lift senior lawyers out of the weeds to focus on critical needs requiring their expertise

How to Contract Membership Offers Expert-Led, Practical, and Scalable Contract Training

We help your people become more productive without sacrificing your company's contract quality or protection. Laura Frederick packaged her insights and expertise into a manageable program for all of your stakeholders.
